A LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS

The following "Letter to Santa Claus" was brought in to the Avalanche office by Mrs. Raymond Slusser, who received it from her mother, Mrs. Mabel Benroth of Vaughnville, Ohio. The Avalanche thought it was well worth printing.

Dear Santa:

It has been a long time since I have written you, I know, but I'd be happy if you would send the gifts I list below.

I'd like some ear muffs and a scarf, some shoes, a purse and too I'd like a rug, about so big, most any kind will do.

The muffs I'd put upon my ears, so gossip I'd not hear about some true or trusted friend, for friends I hold most dear. And with the scarf I'd bind my tongue so I could never say an unkind word about a soul, nor judge him yea or nay. Select stout shoes, for I would go both far and near to bring relief to all the needy so that purse must have no string. And Santa, let the rug be small, that I may keep it near me, for on it I would kneel and offer prayer most sincerely. I'd thank him for the one who taught us how to love our brother. If we'd but heed, then all could live at peace with one another. And Santa dear, throughout the year, bring the selfsame gifts, don't miss, for if you do no Christmas day would ever be like this.

STORK SHOWER

Mrs. Robert Tiffin, Mrs. Aubrey Blaine and Miss Pat Madsen were hostesses Monday of last week at a stork shower honoring Mrs. Robert Smock, which was held at Mrs. Tiffin's home.

Twenty-one ladies were present at the affair. They had a most enjoyable evening. Games were played, at which Mrs. Frank Muth and Mrs. Howard Hatfield won prizes. Mrs. Rosamund Wakeley, won the door prize.

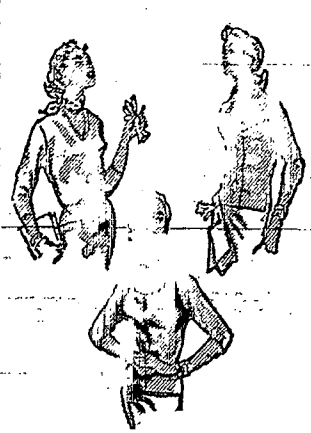

A delicious luncheon was served following the opening of Mrs. Smock's many lovely gifts.

Winner Food Key To Fawns

Fawn production, the key to the success or failure of a deer herd, is determined largely by winter conditions, a four-year Conservation Department study reveals.

Does in the northern lower peninsula produce fewer fawns than their healthier sisters in the southern half of the lower peninsula, where food supplies are abundant. Information for the study was obtained from autopsies of several hundred does between December and June—the fawn-carrying months. Almost all of the does examined were killed by cars or trucks while trying to cross highways.

A regional analysis of the information showed that 10 does in the poorer winter range areas of the northern lower peninsula produce 13 to 15 fawns. Ten does in the good winter range of the southern lower peninsula produce 18 fawns per year.

When does do not get enough natural food, they can't produce normally. Instead of twins, produce most of the time, they usually produce only a single fawn or twins occasionally.

Severe winter conditions and a surplus number of deer in the northern lower peninsula bring about shorter and leaner fawns, a resulting decline in fawn production, the study revealed.

Hi-way Financing Plan Explained

The long awaited fiscal report on how to finance the recently proposed 5.7 billion dollar road program for Michigan was made public in Lansing December 14. The announcement was made by Senator Haskell Nichols, Chairman, Michigan Joint Legislative Committee on Highway Needs. The report was given by Richard Zettel, Zettel is a research economist who was hired by the Legislative Committee from the University of California Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering.

In his recent preliminary report Zettel listed a number of significant points. He said Michigan's 5.7 billion dollars worth of needed highway construction can be built—in 10 years on trunks, 15 years on county roads and city streets—without any major increase in user tax.

If the federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of all work on the Interstate highway system.

If Federal Aid is continued on present levels for the other systems.

If the state issues $500 million in bonds at the rate of $50 million a year for 10 years.

If the Dykstra Act is repealed and the State Highway Department assumes 100 per cent of the cost of constructing trunklines in municipalities.

If 50 per cent of the cost of local road is paid for locally, and not from user taxes.

If the present rate of local participation is maintained in the municipalities for local streets.

On the basis of the above Zettel recommended a change in the distribution formula of road revenues. At present, the state receives 44 per cent, counties 37 per cent and the cities 19 per cent. Zettel recommended 43 per cent to the state, 37.8 per cent to the counties and 19.4 per cent to the cities. Zettel emphasized, however, that the state should wait until Federal highway programs are determined before committing itself to any financing plan on the state level.

In his final report, Zettel recommended adjustments in the present tax burden between various classes of highway users.

BITS O' TALK

Mr. and Mrs. Don Berry of Caro were guests week end before last of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rowland. Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Peterson entertained Mrs. E. C. Safford of Vassar week end before last. Mrs. Peterson left Thursday to spend until Sunday in Flint visiting Miss Nellie Loss. Mr. Peterson brought his wife home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gothro spent Thursday and Friday in Grand Rapids visiting Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Blochman, and also on business.

Woman's Club

The Woman's Club met Monday night of last week at the home of Mr. Walter Truettner. The program was on Christmas ideas, presented by Mrs. Glen Fenton, Mrs. James Lamy and Mrs. Howard Wolff, Jr., including a beautiful display of colored Christmas cards with various Christmas decorations, and gift boxes, all things they had made. They discussed them and explained how they were done.

The business meeting was conducted by president Mrs. Tom Walsh. Five directors were elected: Mrs. Joseph Stripes, Mrs. J. F. Cook, Mrs. Lorne Douglas and Mrs. Don Gothro. A Board of Directors is something new to the club.

The club is purchasing two signs during the meeting day and time of the Grayling Woman's Club. The signs will be erected on US-27 at the north and south approaches to town, like other service club signs.

Mrs. Lorne Douglas, Mrs. Ralph Hoffmann and Mrs. Bud Gould assisted the hostess with the refreshments, which included cookies frosted in a variety of beautiful Christmas decorations.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting with the Kiwanis Club at the school on December 19, for the purpose of gift wrapping. All members are urged to bring wrapping paper and ribbon, as a great deal will be needed. Refreshments will be served by a committee of which Mrs. Robert Bovee will be the chairman.

Monday, January 9, the Kiwanis Club and the Woman's Club will hold a planned potluck at the Michelson Memorial Church. Rev. R. C. Puffer will speak on the White House Conference. Mrs. Lester Welch will be the chairman for the potluck. Members are asked to bring their own dishes.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The Boy Scouts of Grayling, Troop 77, held their meeting Tuesday night at the Sportsmen's Hall. We are working on advancement and are planning our Christmas party and dance to be held in the near future.

We would like to know if anyone has any Scout clothing or equipment they would like to donate to the troop, if you have, we would appreciate it very much and will come and pick it up. Please call our Scoutmaster, Mr. Halstead at 4122 or our assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. Kock at 2997.

We want to thank all the parents and friends who helped make our bake sale a success. We want to thank Mr. Cliff of the E-C-D Company for the use of his store and Mr. Strong of the Avalanche for his help with the advertising.

Letters To The Editor — Norfolk 13, Va. Dec. 6, 1955

Dear Mr. Strong: Enclosed please find my check for $3.00 for another year's subscription to the "Avalanche." I can't tell you how much we enjoy reading the home page. It is like greeting an old friend. We especially like the new column "Jack Pine's Stump."

My mother, Mrs. C. M. Church, who has been visiting her sister in Seattle, Washington, is expected to arrive here in Norfolk to visit us about the 15th of this month. Hello to all our friends in Grayling.

With Best Wishes to you and yours for the Holiday Season and the New Year.

Sincerely, Mrs. Ervin Snively

Michelson Memorial Church News

Family Night — Last Wednesday evening the Family Night supper sponsored annually by the church school drew a large crowd of people.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lamy and their children who are leaving Grayling after several years of very active participation in the Michelson Memorial life and the life of the community.

The potluck supper was followed by a program of songs, scripture verses and recitations by the children of the Primary Department prepared by Mrs. T. E. Robinson and her teachers, and a number by the Youth Choir under the direction of Mrs. Ella Wilcox.

With Miss Judy Larson at the piano, Jimmy Rowland presented a gift to David Lamy in behalf of the Kindergarten Department where both boys are Sunday school pupils.

The program of the evening was concluded when Rev. R. C. Puffer expressed the regret of the church at losing this very popular family, extending the best wishes of all for their success and happiness in their new home and presented a gift from the Men's Club, the Women's Society and the Church School. A pleasant hour of informal fellowship followed.

One of the finest Family Nights in the church program.

Church — The Sunday morning church service was conducted by the Commission on Education, with Mr. Theodore Wheeler, church leader, officiating. The message, "Adult Participation in the Church School," was brought by Mr. Charles Holtcamp, counselor for the Senior Youth. Other participants in the service were Mr. Thomas Robertson, Intermediate Youth counselor and Mr. Barney Engel, general superintendent of the church school.

Church School — The Church School will present the annual Christmas Program next Sunday evening, December 18, at 7:00.

Members of the Primary Department, receiving awards for perfect attendance during November, were Johnny Cook, Bobby LaChapelle, Bobby Millikin, Eddie Robertson, Shirley Madsen, Patsy McEvers, Hannah Kroll, Lauri Olson, Janet Rowland, Sharon Long, Barbara Crouch, Irene Arnis, Nancy Fenton, Janet Madsen, Ann Marie Crouch, Sandy McGee, Ellen Walker, Kenny Halstead, George Stanci, Garrett Bailey, Eddie Annis, Shirley Horton, Roy Hubbell, Howard Madsen, Randy Tahvonen, Jimmy McGee and Peter Funck.

Calvary Ambassadors — The Ambassadors met in the church auditorium Sunday evening at 6:15, the new meeting time. Twelve young people were present. Officers were elected for the year 1956.

Those elected to office were: President, Frank Luter; Vice President, Bill Kellogg; Secretary, Connie Davis; Treasurer, Christine Canfield.

A program committee composed of Frank Luter, Maryann Underwood, Eddie Underwood and Christine Canfield was chosen to plan the programs for the coming year.

Following the election of officers, Rev. Luter gave a short devotional message on the meaning of the gifts brought by the wise men to the baby Jesus.

Bear Lake News

By M. D., the Roving Reporter

We made an error in our first bit of news last week. We reported that Fred Dwyer and Buck Steeler of Toledo were up for hunting. This part was right but we also reported that Marguerite (not Margaret) Gahagan, editor and publisher of the New York Call was their sister. Miss Gahagan says that they are not any relation to her. We offer our apologies.

Rabbit hunting reported as very good. One of the boys lost, some returned, some not.

Little Christine Hirt is celebrating her fifth birthday with a cake and all the trimmings. Her folks Mr. and Mrs. Al Hirt, brother Gary and sister Barbara from March Lake, also have grandfather and grandmother Dinnman and grandfather Hirt with two friends Sharon and Carol Kimball, made up quite a party for Christine.

A few more sleds and a little more gas and Joe Newman's jeep would look like a freight train. Their friends, the Posters, are up this weekend working on their cabin.

Art and Eve Klager dropped in. Nice to see them. Mr. Dwyer, for trying to return the little dog, Jeanie. It still has not been found.

The Douglasses were up rabbit hunting. Speedy, Ralph and his wife didn't do it.

With Christmas season coming up and all the little tots worried about Santa Claus, it sure is a relief for parents. If you can't boss them, you can always coax them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Nelson dropped in this afternoon on their way to Mancelona.

Mrs. Opal Hamblin and Barbara Plagens went to Flint on Thursday to do some Christmas shopping. They were accompanied by some on Friday evening by their sister Frances Hebel, and Kathleen Anderson who came to spend the weekend with the Burt Plagens.

The Christmas work-shop held at the town hall on Wednesday was attended by 35 ladies. Mr. Bob Dewey, and acting Home demonstration Agent, showed a film on "Safety in the Home" and also some slides on H and Home Extension activities taken in the area. The day was spent informally with an exchange of Christmas gift ideas and some many interesting ideas were on display. A delicious luncheon was enjoyed at noon with our Maple Forest group as hostess.

NEW RIBBON OF CONCRETE INTO THE NORTHLAND

Five miles of new 22 ft. concrete pavement 8 inches thick, reinforced with steel, from Grayling south on US-27 was opened to traffic on December 1.

This section is a part of the ultimate four-lane divided interstate highway from Ionia to the Straits of Mackinac, State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler said.

This new pavement roughly parallels the old section of road which is narrow with many steep hills and poor sight distance. It is visible on the left in the picture. On the right of the picture is seen one of the State Highway Department roadside parks. The new road levels the hills, has no steep grades and affords clear vision the entire distance.

Pending the construction of two additional lanes, the new section will be used during the winter months for two-way traffic. During the rest of the year it will be the north-bound lanes.

Politicians Weighing Gov. Williams Attack on Stevenson's "Moderation"

Politicians are trying to assess the attack by Gov. Williams on the "moderation" stand of Adlai Stevenson in the light of the 1956 conventions and presidential election.

Schools of thought vary with the political winds.

One figures Williams is picking up the fringe support around Estes Kefauver and Averill Harriman, of New York. Both have made the same charges against Stevenson, son.

If the theory is sound, Williams could enter the Democratic National Convention as an attractive darkhorse for (1) those who do not want to go with a previous loser, Stevenson, (2) those split over Harriman and Kefauver and (3) those who want a fighting campaign.

The other side of the coin depicts Williams as a full-time Democrat who has never ducked a fight. He would rather go down swinging than win a half-victory without striking a blow.

Williams said Stevenson was suggesting a "national coffee break" in his Denver speech and repudiated the "breather" philosophy for the Democrats.

Williams denied it was his first move to move in as a candidate for the nomination for president next summer.

He fell back on his earlier statement that "any American who is proud" to be a candidate, but ignored previous statements that Stevenson appeared to be the most likely Democrat in 1956.

Republicans around the state still are convinced that Williams will try to make history again by going for a fifth term as the state's chief executive.

They feel he will wait until later when President Eisenhower has left the scene. This, Williams might consider a more opportune time to appear on the campaign trail.

Republicans, however, are still far apart on their choice for governor in 1956.

Rep. Bentley, of Owosso, and Mayor Cobo, of Detroit, both have said they preferred their present jobs but would take the GOP nomination for governor if they could avoid a primary fight.

Rep. Ford, of Grand Rapids is still a possibility and friends said that Donald S. Leonard, former state and Detroit police commissioner, will try again after his defeat by Williams in 1954.

State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown, nicknamed "Farmer Brown" by Democrats, is working on ideas to build up the dairy industry.

He has asked farm and dairy organization to give him their views on sales of milk in gallon jugs.

Brown already has a report from Ohio that the use of the jugs has increased the per capita consumption of milk by 187 pounds and has created a savings to the householder an average of six cents a quart.

Only four, he said, was that the farmer might lose in the switch getting less for his raw milk.

"But if we can work it out and increase the use of milk, while at the same time cutting the price without hurting the farmer, we will advocate it," Brown said.

Grass Roots Organization of Michigan's 83 counties to participate in Michigan Week next May 20-26 is underway.

Durward B. Varner, vice-president of Michigan State University, has been appointed director of counties and Michigan's 600 communities for the observance.

Varner will work with local officials to set up on-the-scene committees which will start work before Jan. 1. He was appointed by Russell A. Swaney, the general chairman.

"The county committee will be depended upon to see that Michigan Week is observed everywhere in its county," said Swaney.

"There are 497 incorporated towns in our state and at least 100 unincorporated communities. We expect them all to participate. It's theirs."

Swaney said the state organization would provide help and coordination to all other groups.

"We want to prepare a significant statewide program in which all Michigan people will be working together and to promote in connection with Michigan Week all the recognition we can for Michigan outside the state," he said.

Working with Varner will be leading representatives of education, labor, industry and civic groups.

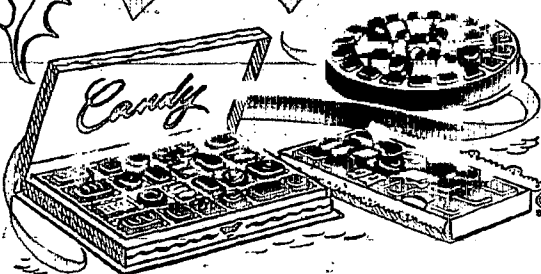

Christmas Is Now Heralded at the state capital.

Workmen have erected a giant Christmas tree at the entrance, have strung lights and have finished decorating the traditional tree, visible for several miles on the nights before Christmas.

Later, each of the major state offices will conduct Christmas receptions for their staffs, topped by the four-hour reception on Gov. Williams in the eve.

A Vast Enterprise

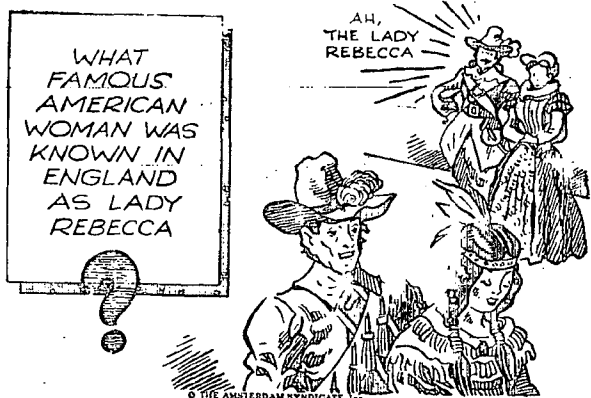

"The Capital is now engaged in the usual quadrennial diversion of hanging political labels on the Presidential candidates and dividing them into heroes and villains," writes James Reston, Washington correspondent of the New York Times. "This labeling operation is part of the story-telling and myth-making industry in Washington—a vast enterprise—and is a great convenience because it enables the voter to avoid thinking or dealing with the facts."

Of course, this method of evaluating candidates has very serious drawbacks. For one thing, even Presidential candidates are human beings—which means that they aren't all hero or all villain, but a mixture of diverse and complex elements. And for another, they, like other people, can and often do change. Mr. Reston says, "This is one of the most interesting aspects of the 1956 campaign: that while the cast of characters is familiar, it cannot be assumed that the men themselves are precisely the same, or that they conform to their political reputations."

He quotes Woodrow Wilson's famous remark, to the effect that some men grow and some merely swell. He points out that "the history of American politics is full of men who seemed shallow and inadequate at one period in their lives but who changed out of all recognition later on." And he deals with possible major transformations that have taken place with some of the potential candidates. It's interesting to note that he believes that changes for the better have occurred in two men who stand high in the political firmament at this time—Richard Nixon and Adlai Stevenson.

This matter of change—in maturity, judgment, understanding of issues—is certainly an important one and deserves heavy emphasis. The two national committees will attempt to white-wash their own people and apply the tar-brush to the opposition. They will try to make emotion the master of logic. And the uncritical voter must inevitably be sadly misled.

ATTENTION, PLEASE—

Coming to specific matters, the political fires are burning bright these days. The President's illness and the generally held belief that this will preclude his running again have changed the picture drastically. On the Democratic side, particularly, there is a fever of activity. Stevenson is still the best yet—but by no means a sure bet. Senator Kefauver has proven himself a power in past primaries, and he is in the running again. Governor Harriman seems to be looked on favorably by Mr. Truman. And Mr. Truman is the greatest single force in his party.

On the Republican side, a Gallup poll made after the President's illness indicates the prevailing winds. The five top-runners were as follows: Nixon, favored by 28 per cent of those polled; Warren, by 24 per cent; Dewey, by 10 per cent; Stassen, by 10 per cent; Dulles, by nine per cent. Thus only Justice Warren gave the Vice-President a close race in public favor. And the Justice has shown no inclination to alter his attitude of two years ago, when he said that he would not be a candidate under any circumstances.

Finally, going beyond politics, a paragraph by David Lawrence, appearing in U. S. News & World Report, certainly seems revelant. He said: "It is a time for the heart of America to be revealed. It is a time to speak with one accord to the other peoples of the world and to tell them that the American people—no matter who is chosen as a successor in the Presidency—expect to continue to seek peace in the self-same spirit of human love so simply expressed by Dwight Eisenhower."

December 15, 1932

It has been many years since this region has had quite as much snow and low temperature weather as we are having at this time. Temperatures have gone well below zero most nights and there were a couple of days when it continued steadily below zero. Along with low temperature, we have had plenty of snow. The precipitation hasn't been heavy, but it has continued almost constantly for several days. The snow is light and fluffy and the winds carry it in all directions. It is estimated that we have about a foot of snow. The lowest temperature reported is 9 degrees below zero, and occurred Friday, December 9th, according to the records obtained at the Fish Hatchery and from George Schable, official weather man at the Military reservation.

Fourteen field goals and one free throw out of five, five fifteen field goals and two free throws out of seven. The resultant point margin was all that separated Grayling High School's basketball team from Cheboygan's representatives, and "the Avalanche" from the north won a 32-20 victory here last Friday night. The Grayling reserves captured a 23-17 decision from Houghton Lake High School as the first act on a basketball program that left fans with a simple collection of strained throats. The Orange and Black team is picked from a lot bigger school than this and Class B basketball ought to be superior to the average Class C club—considerably more superior than Cheboygan was. The truth of the matter is that the winners had their hands very full for the full time and were plenty willing to quit when it was all over.

ved. A very enjoyable time was reported by all and Mrs. Hanson was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Trunkline M-96 is open from Grayling to Traverse City and is being used quite extensively in spite of winter snows and colds. This road is a great convenience and greatly improves the route to the western part of the state. Kalkaska is only 26 miles, where connections may be made with the Pennsylvania railroad. Traverse City is only about 68 miles away. While there is no state road east to Luzerne, Mio and Harrisville, it is easily reached by good roads via Roscommon.

Misses Matilda and Virginia Engel, who have been attending school in Lansing, returned to Grayling High School Wednesday to finish the year here.

Today at noon the School Executives of the 5th district had luncheon at Shoppensons Inn after which there was a meeting held at the High School to discuss the tax situation.

The pupils of Grayling High School were honored by being addressed Wednesday noon by Dr. C. R. Keyport, whose theme was "Are You Going to Have Rheumatism?" The program also included songs from the Minstrel show which was given that same evening.

Mrs. Jess Bohmeyer and Mrs. Leland Smock were hostesses at a cookie-bridge party at the Bohmeyer home Wednesday evening. Forty guests were present at the affair. Mrs. Fred Nelson won the prize for bridge, Mrs. David Montour for five hundred, and Frank Malloy for pinocchio. Delicious cup cakes and cookies and tea and coffee were served.

Richard Lovell spent the week end in Bay City visiting friends.

Miss Marjorie Woods and Dr. McEwan of Bay City were week end guests of Miss Fern Armstrong.

Lewis Engel and his sister, Mrs. Ted Stephan left Sunday for Detroit to be gone for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of Saginaw spent Friday and Saturday visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Victor Selig, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Trudewit and family. Alfred Hanson and Alex Atkinson attended the Chevrolet Sales School of instruction in Bay City Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hanson, who visited her brother, Guy Peterson, and family.

The A. & P. Store crew are sporting new work smocks. The meat market employees are wearing white smocks trimmed with black stripes with an A. & P. label on the left arm. These new store smocks are steel gray with the same label.

Edgar McPhee, who is a graduate of Grayling High School, and will be remembered for his athletic ability while a student here, is this year coaching the St. Joseph School team of West Branch. McPhee knows his basketball and we predict a winning team for St. Joseph.

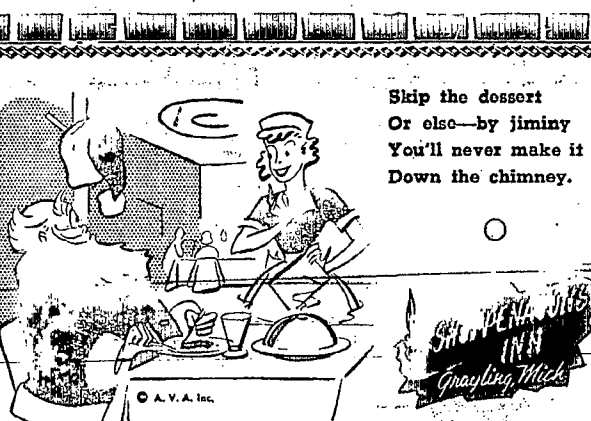

Our Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Wm. Moshier Wednesday afternoon instead of Thursday afternoon on account of the conflict with the Red Cross meeting on Thursday. There were twenty-eight members present, also three guests, Mrs. Russell Moshier, Mrs. Sherman Neal and Mrs. John Wakelley. The afternoon was spent in more sewing for the Red Cross. Besides sewing, the ladies celebrated the birthdays of the following members whose birthdays come in December: Haite Moshier, Emma Knibbs, Florence Wakeley and Carrie Feldhaus. Albert Lutz made the birthday wish.

Mr. and Mrs. George Belmore are delegates to the meeting of the State Grange at Traverse City this week. Grayling will also be represented by Perry Ostrander and Mrs. Moon.

Detective Gleason of the M. C. railroad made a visit here Tuesday. He is a welcome visitor. Good news from the home of W. Feldhauser at Maple Forest is that he is steadily improving from the serious operation of appendicitis.

Miss Elizabeth Cobb who has been principal of the Elmira School spent a few hours here Tuesday shaking hands with her friends.

Miss Sophie Peterson left for Watertown, South Dakota, Tuesday afternoon. She will be missed by her many friends as she was an active member of both the Epworth League and of the C. W. League presented her with a fine gold ring.

Former Local Pastor's Wife Succumbs

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Carrie Willits, of Nashville, Mich., widow of the late Rev. Joseph Willits, the builder and a former pastor of the Free Methodist church in Grayling. Mrs. Willits, who was 87 years old, died in a Charlotte, Mich., hospital after a 17-day illness.

The former Miss Carrie McGuigan, she was born July 5, 1868 in Ontario. She married the Rev. Joseph Willits, a minister in the Methodist Protestant church at Mayville, Mich., on Aug. 9, 1888. For 16 years Rev. Willits served churches here and at Frederic and Pere Cheney in Crawford County.

He also served pastorates at Hickory Corners, at Charlotte and in Barryville, before his retirement. Following his retirement Rev. and Mrs. Willits resided for many years in Barryville before moving to Charlotte in December of 1948.

The Rev. Willits died in February of 1949.

Surviving Mrs. Willits are two daughters, Mrs. Clara Puffpaff, and Mrs. Helen Kesler, both of Hastings; five sons, Chester of Birmingham, Stanley of Tucson, Ariz., Wilson of Albuquerque, N. M., Harold of Flint and Dr. C. O. Willits of Charlotte.

Ross McGuigan of Mayville; a sister, Miss Lizzie McGuigan of Postoria; 19 grandchildren; and 29 great grandchildren. Funeral services were held at Nashville and burial was in a cemetery there.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

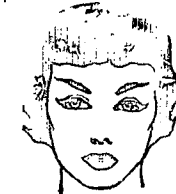

Grayling's Boy Scout Troop 77 is planning a dance for the Girl Scouts to be held Saturday, December 17 at the Sportsmen's Hall. It will be from 7:30 until 9:30.

Frederic Scout News

Sixteen Brownies met and sang songs and had a prayer. They answered roll call by naming Christmas gifts. More was read in the Brownie story and old and new business was discussed. A thank you letter was read from the dear ones who received the Brownie Thanksgiving baskets. Each girl then worked on a quilt block. Lunch was served by Rae Ann Monshau and Margaret Weaver. Mrs. Monshau furnished the lunch for the meeting. The Brownies wish to express their thank to all who helped them by soon to help the local troop.

buying the Scout cookies.

Leo Post and Charles Chapman spent Friday and Saturday, December 2 and 3 at the Conservation Training School at Higgins Lake taking a course in the University of Scouting. There were approximately 75 adults there from the Paul Bunyan Council and three professional Scouters. Two were from the regional office in Chicago and Arthur Henry, executive office of the Council. Many new ideas for scouting were introduced which the two Frederic men hope to be able to use soon to help the local troop.
